College of Osteopathic Medicine

Chair, PNWU Board of Trustees,
Dr. Richard K. Spiegel

“PNWU’s impact on Yakima and the Pacific Northwest is just beginning.

Within five years, hundreds of medical students and graduates will train in communities around the region. Research shows a high likelihood of doctors staying to practice where they receive training.

The economic impact on the Yakima area will grow as the university expands its training programs. PNWU has the potential to be a significant source of jobs in our valley.”
